IWPA Circular No. 130 of 2014

IWPA to file petition objecting the collection of the Scheduling System Operation Charges by TANGEDCO for "Sale to Board" category

Dear Members,

As you are all aware TANGEDCO has recently issued a circular memo dated November 25, 2014 in terms of which the Scheduling and System Operation charges (of Rs.2,000 / day or part of day) is to be collected from all the generators including "Sale to Board" category.

The Association proposes to file a petition before the High Court to restrain TANGEDCO from collecting these charges in respect of members who fall under the "Sale to Board" category.

To defray the cost of filing the petition and payment of court fee for individual members, the affected members are requested to send Rs. 20,000 each by cheque / DD payable at Chennai favouring "Indian Wind Power Association".

The affected members are requested to send the amount at the earliest and may please communicate with the IWPA National Office so that a database could also be created.

Thanking you & with Best Wishes and Regards,

For Indian Wind Power Association
